Cochise (Portuguese Edition) Ramiro Alves

Mesmo sob o protesto de alguns, a conquista do território, que é hoje conhecido como Estados Unidos da América, foi árdua sangrenta e desleal. Ainda que digam que não difere muito dos métodos utilizados pelos espanhóis e portugueses, quando da tomada da América do Sul, a dos EUA é muito mais épica glamorosa e dinâmica. Primeiro seus nativos - nações indígenas - conseguiram com toda bravura e determinação rechaçar as investidas dos espanhóis, causando-lhe pesadas perdas a ponto de se concentrarem na região do México desistindo do restante das terras descobertas por Cristóvão Colombo. Os índios americanos, americanos sim! destacavam-se pelo seu porte físico avantajado, altos, corpo definido, feições rudes, mas atraentes, cutis avermelhada pelo sol, ótimos cavaleiros, roceiros e pescadores. E uma disposição incansável para lutar por suas terras, seu povo e costumes. Esta é uma parte da história de um dos muitos chefes desses bravos guerreiros Cochise, um grande e ferrenho guerreiro da nação apache que inspirou muito épicos cinematográficos que nem sempre lhe fizeram justiça. Certamente grande parte do orgulho, gana e patriotismo dos americanos, tem origem nessa época da conquista da terra, e no glamoroso exemplo dos grandes chefes índios. Esta é uma obra de ficção, não um livro de história. Portanto, propositadamente, alguns fatos, pessoas e lugares foram exagerados, para prover mais ação, emoção e suspense aos acontecimentos que, em seu âmago, foram reais.
