Mapping the Frontier: A Memoir of Discovery from Coastal Maine to the Alaskan Rim Rufus Harvey Sargent

Author R. Harvey Sargent of Sedgwick, ME, led the U. S. Geological Survey in Alaska, for 35 years. He also created the first modern maps of China, trekking across the country's interior during the treacherous post-Boxer Rebellion days in 1903-04. Recreating his story from maps, photographs, and his own copious journal entries, Mapping the Frontier is a great addition to the literature of discovery and adventure.
