Comprehensive Construction Law Mark R. Becker, Kenneth A. Cripe, John S. Mrowiec

This manual will provide insight and practical advice from construction lawyers regarding construction contracting claims issues. Special emphasis will be on case decisions rendered in 2000 through 2006. The topics to be discussed will cover the most recent developments regarding specific contract provisions, especially the pay if/when paid, final and binding decision, termination for convenience, no damages for delay, and changes provisions, contractual dispute resolution and notice provisions, design responsibilities, differing site conditions and termination claims. The authors also will equip readers with the necessary information to address the special contract and claims challenges raised by industry standard forms, statutes and case decisions.
