Cooking Irish Style Today Noreen Kinney

In 'Cooking Irish Style Today' Noreen brings good cooking into everyone's reach. Very colourful, economical and easily followed recipes, without additional expense or extra work in the process. Noreen includes several traditional dishes as well as many original ones incorporating characteristic Irish flavours. Noreen writes a weekly section in a national newspaper, and also runs 'Culinary Tours' throughout Ireland during the winter. Here are some written comments received from those attending her 'Culinary Tours' . . 'Enjoyed every minute and feel each dish was one which I could cook for my family, and not keep for special occasions, as none were too expensive, or time consuming, and yet are colourful and exotic enough for a dinner party.' · 'Very colourful, economical and easily followed recipes.' · 'Takes the ordinary everyday items that people use, but does them in such a way that the result is a luxurious meal.' Press Release issued by Mercier Press on publication of Noreen's book in 1977
