Mito del pueblo elegido (Razón y Sociedad) (Spanish Edition) Jesús Avelino de la Pienda González

En la historia de la humanidad se dieron y se siguen dando infinidad de casos de Pueblo Elegido por la Divinidad o alguna fuerza superior. Este mito se da entre los Guaranís de Sudamérica, los Cogi de Colombia, los Aztecas, los tzotziles de Chapas (México). Este libro estudia este mito en aquellas religiones que actualmente tienen un especial peso mundial. En concreto, se analiza el caso del Pueblo Elegido de Israel, que es heredado por el Cristianismo, el Islam y el Proletariado Comunista. Es un mito o idea-fuerza que alimenta el etnocentrismo de estos pueblos, religiones e ideologías, siendo uno de los factores, si no causa directa, de sangrientas guerras y de muchos millones de muertos. Es una amenaza permanente para la paz y un obstáculo insalvable para el diálogo intercultural e interreligioso. De ahí la necesidad de someterlo a un análisis filosófico y de desarmar así su lógica interna y su fuerza argumentativa. No se trata el caso del Nazismo alemán, porque en la práctica ya no cuenta como fuerza social importante.
