Each dark night of our lives beckon the Hope Stealers; when our hope is drained, they drive us toward the Place Called Dry Bones. Thomas chose the world as an inheritance instead of embracing God because he feared Gethsemane and what it required of him. Thomas relinquished God for the Midas within himself. Jeremiah leads a band of Runners to escape God rather than surrender to Him. Julian and Mr. Roy, despite the horrific dark nights, accept God's hand and await His Light to divide it from their darkness. God's children are His light, His Restorers, and we must rescue as many souls from the enemy as possible. We are God's Light shining forth in the darkness and offering Eternal Hope.
