Professor of Judaism at the University of Wales, author of over 30 books, Rabbi Cohn-Sherbok guided the selection of topics addressed in this book. Here are some examples:

- * Should Jewish believers in Messiah attend only Messianic Jewish congregations?
- * Is intermarriage acceptable for Messianic Jews?
- * Should liturgy have an essential role in congregational worship?
- * How should outreach be accomplished?

Many of the best minds impacting this movement have contributed their thoughts to this book, creating a lively, informative, discussion. Each author, expressing his or her own view on a topic (often in direct opposition to another author), is a voice that can help this maturing movement confront the critical issues facing it.
