Orpheum (Part One): A Dark Fantasy Romance Derek Murphy

"Believable and engaging characters - also very informative about music, European countries, and architecture. These elements nicely complimented the suspense and fantasy in the story." -Amazon Review ★★★★★

"One path will bring you power, but the other will end in death. Neither will you survive, and no matter what choice you make, the one you love will be lost to you."

When I get rejected from my dream school, I take a mysterious offer from a music school in Bulgaria. The culture and my new classmates are sometimes bewildering, as are my feelings for Denzi - the first guy I've really wanted, and the only one I can't have. As I discover dark secrets about the school, I find that far from being a stranger here, I'm actually intimately involved in a supernatural war between ancient beings. They use music as a weapon, and have abilities I can't fathom. They tell me I'm the key to saving the world. But they made a mistake. They didn't realize that by teaching me to awaken my powers, they'd give me the power to destroy.

Orpheum is a young adult dark fantasy romance based on Eastern European history, the myths and literature of Orpheus and Pythagoras' theory of Musica Universalis, or the music of the spheres.

This is PART ONE of the first book in the series.
