As Many As I Love - Suicide, the Church, and the Believer M.Div., Ph.D., Lawrence Taylor

This is a testimony of a father, ordained to Christian minister, board certified as a chaplain, with a PhD in psychology and experience as a psychotherapist, pastor, teacher and college administrator, whose oldest son committed suicide. It is the story of grief, hope, recovery, and grace. It outlines the historical perspective on suicide by religions, and gives practical advice as to how we can prevent suicide and comfort survivors.
