Moving day has finally come for DJ and her family. But now that the new house is completed, DJ realizes she's about to leave the only home she's ever known and she's not ready to say good-bye. To make matters worse, she'll be away at her father's the week of the move!

But things are looking up at the Academy. At last DJ is off restrictions, so she can ride Major again. Her first rated show is coming up a big step toward DJ's Olympic aspirations. And the overwhelming support from her family leaves DJ nearly speechless.

But with her booming note card business, an art weekend in San Francisco, and her responsibilities at home, DJ is at her wits' end. Can she fit it all in and still have time with Major?

It's time to say good-bye-but is DJ willing?
