A Bunny for All Seasons Janet Schulman

One summer day a bunny hops out of the woods and into a garden. “What a wonderful garden someone has made just for me,” she thinks. All summer she feasts there. In the fall, she hides from the mean old cat behind big orange pumpkins. Then, just before the snows of winter, another bunny hops into her garden. Now during the cold winter, she has a friend. And when the first flowers of spring pop up in the garden, the two bunnies are there—and so are their three little baby bunnies!

This gentle story with vibrant watercolor paintings captures the essence of the four seasons.
