Saying GoodBye to The Iris Lady Marilyn Smith Neilans

"The Iris Lady" of Williamsburg, Virginia is an eccentric, obsessive elderly widow. When she is hospitalized for cancer surgery, her three far-flung middle-aged children gather at her home to deal with their mother's care, her house and her extensive gardens - as well as with their own long-ago-established sibling roles and rivalries. Her youngest daughter especially learns that none of us are truly adults until our last parent dies.
