Columbus (Then and Now) Tamara Stone Iorio

Since its founding in 1821, Columbus, Indiana, has changed greatly--from an early agricultural town to a small modern city with varied business and industry. Today Columbus is most famous for its architectural gems from the past half century, but many historic buildings from early Columbus still exist. As Columbus has changed, its buildings have changed as well. Tamara Stone Iorio is a pediatrician and longtime resident of Columbus with an interest in history and writing.
