Semillas de conflicto: Las raíces bíblicas de la crisis inevitable en el Medio Oriente (Spanish Edition)

Bryant Wright

Un claro y profundo análisis bíblico del origen, la historia y la importancia del conflicto de Medio Oriente.

El actual conflicto en el Medio Oriente comenzó mucho tiempo antes de la creación del Estado de Israel en 1948: se originó cuando Abraham pecó y torció la promesa de Dios de que él y sus herederos construirían una gran nación y heredarían el territorio hoy llamado la «tierra prometida».

Semillas de conflicto, un relato histórico y político, ofrece una explicación clara de la historia bíblica de Abraham, Sara y Agar y de la consiguiente rivalidad fraternal entre Jacob y Esaú, cuyas decisiones dieron origen a las tres religiones más influyentes del mundo: el judaísmo, el cristianismo y el islamismo.

Este fascinante análisis sobre los inicios del conflicto también explica la razón por la que este territorio es tan importante en nuestros días. Además, Wright echa luz sobre las incompatibles perspectivas cristiana, judía e islámica sobre el conflicto y responde a la pregunta ¿Dios tiene favoritismos?
