Acceptance: The Edge Series, Book 69 Starla Kaye

Being the CEO of a major architectural company in California has taken over far too much of Chase's life, leaving no time for romance. But when a handsome Spaniard offers drinks and conversation, talking leads to one spectacular night and an awareness of what he really wants. But once Rico returns home to Spain, Chase will be alone again.

Rico lives on his family's strict schedules, with no time for contemplating what is missing in his life. He doesn't expect to meet someone special on this business trip. But he is drawn to the big, striking blond American. Giving Chase someone to talk to takes Rico's mind off his problems. And a mutual attraction gives them both a chance to forget everything else and let their passionate natures run free.

Chase has a company to run, and Rico must return home to Spain - a truth they must both accept. But will acceptance be enough when it comes to waking up alone?
