Art of Ceramics, takes readers on a voyage of discovery through of the world of ceramics today. A material so fragile yet so bold, every piece is an extraordinary work of art. Filled with glorious full-colour illustrations, this volume showcases different artists who accentuate their messages through images, transforming ceramics into a visual identity, the objective of which is to inspire. Amongst those featured are Barnaby Barford, Foekje Fleur and Kate Macdowell, Lenneke Wispelwey, Ende, Jonathan Adler and Piselli Projects, who put their stamp on our everyday objects, introducing art into our most habitual moments. All of the artists display their most inspiring pieces accompanied by a short biography outlining their visions and career.
