The Country of the Pointed Firs (Xist Classics) Sarah Orne Jewett The Beauty of a Decaying Seaport

“In the life of each of us, I said to myself, there is a place remote and islanded, and given to endless regret or secret happiness; we are each the unaccompanied hermit and recluse of an hour or a day; we understand our fellows of the cell to whatever age of history they may belong.” - Sarah Orne Jewett, The Country of the Pointed Firs

A Bostonian decides to spend the summer in a small seaport in Maine to finish her book. She doesn't find the peace in Mrs. Todd's house so she goes to an abandoned schoolhouse where she can meditate and concentrate. There she discovers the unique beauty of the decaying seaport.
