Due anni sull'oceano (Storie) (Italian Edition) Richard Henry Dana

Nel 1834, a soli diciannove anni, lo studente di legge Richard Dana s'imbarca sul brigantino Pilgrim come marinaio semplice. Il racconto del suo viaggio, da Boston fino alla California doppiando Capo Horn, è la prima descrizione realistica della vita sulle navi e aprirà la strada alla grande narrativa di mare, a cominciare dai romanzi di Herman Melville. Attento alle condizioni di vita degli umili – dai neri agli indigeni agli immigrati europei – Dana restituisce un'immagine unica dell'America ottocentesca, e descrive con spietata precisione la durezza e i rischi della navigazione. Il pathos del suo racconto nasce così da una prosa asciutta, dall'esigenza di verità che ha reso questo libro un classico, ispirando generazioni di scrittori e continuando ad affascinare i lettori di tutto il mondo.
