Magical Suggestions Harry Latour

From the author's PREFACE.

IN compiling this little book of Magic it has been my aim to present, as far as I know, original effects. Not entirely original, perhaps, in the methods of working, yet "Magical Suggestions" that I have found practical in my own act.

A vast quantity of magical literature has come my way and I have found the books contained little that was original or new, so have been tempted to produce a few of my own ideas. I am not attempting to teach the reader the "Art of Magic" or how to present it, as there are a number of standard works on the subject. I am simply giving the effect and the modus operandi of the experiments in a plain and straightforward manner, and leave it to the reader to construct his own patter and to adopt his own method of presentation.

The book is written for advanced students, who, I am sure, are always on the look out for new effects. There is an ever increasing demand for something different in Magic, and I venture to hope that my brother magicians may find some of the "Suggestions" useful.

Allison Larson:

As a pupil exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library in order to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's soul or real their leisure activity. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country.
